DJ's final words: 'I'm sorry, I tried my best'

Duke pays surprise visit to hospital

THE Duke of Cambridge had a quip ready when he paid a surprise visit to Basingstoke hospital.

As he was met by a line-up of nurses and other medical staff at the entrance last week, he joked. "I hope the wards aren't empty"

Prince William was visiting the hospital on Wednesday afternoon to meet former members of the military who have chosen to start a new career in the NHS through the Step into Health Programme.

And as well as chatting with the members of hospital staff, some patients got a right royal surprise when they had the opportunity to meet the Duke as he toured the hospital's wards and corridors during his visit

Suicide verdict recorded at Carys Murdock inquest

By Christian Wilson

A GIFTED Basingstoke DJ killed herself in the same woodland where a friend had committed suicide two years earlier, an inquest heard.

Former Basingstoke College of Technology (BCoT) student Carys Murdock's body was found on August 8 at Jeffrey's Copse, Kempshott.

The 22-year-old, better known to followers of her music as Enfuza, left a note to her friends and family in which she spoke of her pain.

It read, "I'm sorry I tried my best. This is the end for me. Didn't want to be selfish, but the pain was too much for me."

A friend of Miss Murdock, Mark Newman, was found dead in the same secluded woodland, on August 20, 2014, where he too had hanged himself.

A statement from the DJ's partner of three years, Alex Binton, revealed that the pair had talked about suicide following Mr Newman's death.

He said, "She told me she had tried to kill herself several times when she was younger

"She said she didn't need counselling, but I think she was in denial."

Mr Binton told Tuesday's inquest at Basingstoke Law Courts that the loss of Miss Murdock's estranged father who had died on the same day that she had attempted to make contact with him on Facebook in 2014, had also "affected her deeply"

Miss Murdock began drinking heavily and taking cannabis and MDMA and "refused to accept help from anyone" other than her partner, with Mr

Parents' sadness at beloved son's death

By Christian Wilson

A 16-YEAR-OLD boy from Whitchurch who died following a two-vehicle collision last week has been described as a "bright flame" by his parents.

Mac Sutcliffe was riding his motorbike when he was involved in a collision with a white Mercedes van on Friday at the junction of Harroway and Bloswood Lane, in Whitchurch.

The incident took place at 7.23am, with two South Central Ambulance Service (SCAS) officers and two rapid response vehicles then being called to the scene to treat the youngster.

Mac sustained life-threatening injuries from the crash and despite being rushed by paramedics to Basingstoke hospital, he sadly passed away a short time after arrival.

In a statement released by Hampshire Constabulary on Monday, his parents paid tribute to their "beloved son".

They said: "It is with enormous sadness that we announce that our beloved son, Mac Sutcliffe, died in a motorcycle accident on October 14.

"He was a bright flame and shone so brightly in so many lives. We would like to thank everyone for their thoughts, prayers and support. It is appreciated and much needed.

"May he rest in peace and rise in glory."

Friends and wellwishers also took to social media to leave touching tributes for the popular former Testbourne Community School pupil, with one describing him as "such a good person" who "always had a smile" on his face.

Jay Black said: "Ever since I met you, I knew that you were gonna be a close friend, and you really were, not just to me, but to everyone.

"I love you so much buddy you will be wholeheartedly missed and forever loved."

Adrianna Hastings wrote: "Gonna miss you Mac you really were someone special, I think you touched just about everyone's heart!"

Barry Hudson added: "R.I.P Mac forever in our thoughts."

The van driver and his passenger both 31 year-old men from Reading, were uninjured in the collision.

A police investigation is now underway. Anyone with information can call police on 101, quoting reference number 44160338093.

Cyclist's 1,000-mile challenge

TADLEY cyclist Kevin Mosley has completed his latest epic challenge, this time riding nearly 1,000 miles from Lands End to John O Groats over 12 days.

Kevin was one of a team of 55 riders to complete the journey, spending 72 hours in the saddle as he made his way up the length of the country.

And it has resulted in raising more than £3,700 for charity Coram Life Education, and The Alzheimer's Society – both of which Kevin has close connections with.

He helped set up Coram Life Education through Newbury Rotary Club, which teaches children about health and wellbeing.

And Kevin's dad Raymond was diagnosed with Alzheimer's in early 2013, and sadly died shortly before the challenge.

"I struggled initially to re-motivate myself to the challenge," said Kevin.

"But I am glad to say it made me all the more determined to finish and at least raise much needed funds for The Alzheimer's Society to help out its future patients and their carers.

"I think we all should feel blessed to live in the UK with all the wonderful scenery that we passed by on our route."

Kevin is hoping to raise £5,000 by Christmas. To donate, go to uk.virginmoneygiving.com/MosleyKevin1

Detective honoured for role in Hamlen case

A HAMPSHIRE detective has been recognised at a national policing awards for bringing the man responsible for murdering the wife of a Basingstoke coffee merchant to justice.

Detective Inspector Martin Chudley was named runner up in the 'Detective investigation of the Year' category at the Police Federation National Detectives' Forum Awards last Thursday.

He was nominated for the prestigious policing award for his work during the investigation into the murder of 77-year-old Georgina Edmonds by Matthew Hamlen on January 11, 2008.

Mrs Edmonds, whose late husband Harry ran the Edmonds Group in Festival Place, was battered to death with a marble rolling pin, and stabbed several times for her bank card PIN at her home in Bramhridge.

Hamlen was originally brought to trial in 2012, but was found not guilty, before new DNA evidence was discovered and he was sentenced to serve at least 30 years in prison following a second trial in February.

Det Insp Chudley said: "To be recognised in this category is fantastic for the team, and recognition of all of our hard work.

"It is important to remember that whilst we celebrate our achievements in this investigation, at the heart of all of this is an elderly woman who lost her life and a family who have been left behind."

Despite being blind since birth, he will line up for run

Tony tackles big challenge

By Christian Wilson

A COURAGEOUS runner aims to complete a personal goal on Sunday – one that has been about a year in the making.

Tony Nicholls, who is blind, will be taking to the starting line in his first major running challenge at the Great South Run, in Portsmouth.

But the 41-year-old from Basingstoke will not be alone as fellow Hatch Warren Runners are set to flank him the whole way shouting direction and encouragement on the 10-mile challenge.

Tony has been blind since birth but that did not stop him from joining a guide-running group last year, and taking on the 5km Basingstoke Parkrun each week – taking 10 minutes off his original personal best in that time.

He said: "I have been going to the gym for many years and last July my step mum Lindsey was given a leaflet advertising a trial run for the visually impaired at Basingstoke Parkrun.

"From there, I started running every week, and I like to know if I knock any time off every time I do it.

"I can't wait to do it and have been training really hard. I've even stopped eating lots of crisps!"

Running club mates Richard Pickard and Sharon LeRoy have guided Tony during his runs, by either using a tether and lots of talking, or by holding his arm.

Richard said: "Tony has been running the weekly 5km Basingstoke Parkrun since we started the group.

"He's incredibly motivated, loves running and is always keen to progress further.

"The team are helping him prepare for the Great South Run, and can't wait to guide him on the day."

Tony's other big passion is gardening, and he has spent three days a week for the last 11 years tending the gardens in Beech Hill, near Reading, thanks to the charity Thrive.

The organisation uses gardening to bring about positive changes to the lives of people living with disabilities, or who feel isolated.

And Tony is hoping to "give something back" to Thrive by completing the Great South Run in the charity's name.

He added: "I would like to raise money for Thrive, as they are helping so many people with a variety of issues and every penny raised really does count and helps everyone.

"I am so excited about the Great South Run, and I cannot thank the people enough who have helped and encouraged me."

Anyone interested in sponsoring Tony for his run can do so at the website: justgiving.com/fundraising/Tony-Nicholls-Basingstoke.

• Tony Nicholls, with guide runner Sharon LeRoy, will take on the Great South Run at the weekend

Coroner records a verdict of suicide

Hinton then moving out to give himself "some space" about a week before her death.

Mr Hinton said: "She was an accomplished DJ, but felt guilty about these unknown people liking her. She had so much going on in her life, [and] I don't know if I could do any more to help her. It all became too much, [but] I never wanted to end things permanently, I just needed to clear my head. I was heartbroken when I found out."

While confirming a verdict of suicide, North East Hampshire coroner Andrew Bradley said: "She had a lot going for her, but then she began to disintegrate.

"There's no clinical depression, but she was clearly in a low frame of mind when she takes herself away to the lonely woodland."

He added: "It's just sad that she couldn't find a hand to take hold of. She clearly perceives her life in despair.

"She had so much to live for."

'Indecent acts' committed in front of girls

By Christian Wilson

* An 11-year-old girl was targeted as she walked along Upton Crescent, in Oakridge (Picture by Sorinary)

A MAN has been arrested after "indecent acts" were committed in front of children during two separate incidents in Basingstoke

The suspect is alleged to have performed the acts during the same day last month, while he was driving across town.

A man driving a blue car is reported to have pulled up alongside an 11-year-old girl as she was walking along Upton Crescent, in Oakridge, at around 3pm on September 19.

He then committed an indecent act inside the car in front of the girl, before then driving away along the same road.

A similar incident then took place some time between 3pm and 3.30pm across town near to The Costello School, in Crosborough Hill.

The man was described as white, clean shaven, aged in his late 20s or early 30s, was of medium build, and wearing a short-sleeved top.

A 34-year-old man has been arrested in connection with the offences and has been bailed until Wednesday November 2, pending further enquiries

Police would like to speak to any members of the public who witnessed these incidents, or any incidents of this nature in the area, to help them establish who was involved.

PC Rob Penn said: "We would like to reassure members of the public that instances of this nature are rare, but to please contact police if you have any information, or have seen a man of this description acting suspiciously

"Officers are appealing for any residents in the Upton Crescent area who have CCTV cameras which cover the road and passing vehicles."

Anyone with information is asked to contact PC Penn on 101, quoting reference number 44166354143, or alternatively call charity Crimestoppers anonymously on 0800 555111

NURSES and therapists at Basingstoke hospital are set to benefit from a cash boost

The Ark Medical Trust at the Ark Centre in Dunwoodie Drive has donated £20,000 to support those in training with Hampshire Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust (HHFT)

It is hoped by The Ark that the donation will become an annual one, in order to support the training and development of nurses and therapists

Chairman Sandra Fell said: "We are really pleased to support training in our local hospitals, and would like to thank all of the NHS staff who are regular customers of The Ark in Basingstoke, because they have helped to make this possible

As well as Basingstoke hospital HHFT also run Royal Hampshire County Hospital, in Winchester, and Andover War Memorial Hospital.

Chief nurse at the trust, Donna Green, said: "This year we have used the money to support ward sisters to undertake a foundation practice development course

"On this course they learnt skills in facilitating and supporting training and development for staff on the wards.

"Encouraging our staff to reach their own personal goals helps us to recruit and retain the best staff."

Clown craze affecting circus

By Christian Wilson

A FAMILY circus has been "inundated with phone calls" over concerns about its resident clown, following the emergence of the "killer clown" craze.

Jay Miller's Circus brought the big top to Basingstoke's Milestones Museum on Tuesday where it will run shows until October 30 – the day before Halloween.

The preparation for the shows have been hampered by a scary trend from the USA spreading nationwide with people frightening other residents by dressing up as killer clowns and some even carrying weapons.

This has led to Jay Miller's Circus receiving calls from worried parents about their clown of 10 years Peppi, with the company's ringmaster revealing visitor numbers had dropped as a result.

Ross Farrer said: "From what we are being told children are worried about coming to the circus, as they have been scared by clowns walking home from school, and are anxious as to what might happen if they enter the big top.

"Although this could be perceived by the pranksters as a lighthearted bit of fun, it is having an effect on our visitor numbers.

"We are being inundated with phone calls from concerned parents wanting to know everything regarding our innocent clown, Peppi."

A clown was spotted jumping out and scaring people last Monday morning close to Bishop Challoner Catholic School, at a car park next to St Joseph's Church, in St Michael's Road, South Ham.

Headteacher John Wright confirmed to the Observer that the police were then called, although "at no time was this person on the school premises".

And with Hampshire Constabulary releasing a warning the same day that those involved could face arrest, Mr Farrer was keen to stress to the public that circus clowns were not trying to frighten audience members.

He said: "Our resident clown, Peppi has been travelling with us for over 10 years, and is a firm favourite with our regular audience members.

• Jay Miller's Circus have received a number of phone calls from concerned parents about their resident clown, Peppi

"He does not wear a mask, or have a big curly wig. In fact, he is bald.

"Jay Miller's Circus is a family run, family-orientated show, and at no point is our aim to scare or frighten any of our audiences – we want to deliver fun and laughter to people of all ages."

Claims extended

BASINGSTOKE MP Maria Miller has welcomed the Government's decision to extend the rail delay scheme to include shorter days.

The Delay Repay scheme was designed to help passengers delayed by 30 minutes or more to claim compensation, but will now be extended to include 15 minute delays.

Changes will be rolled out at the new South Western franchise when it starts midway through next year, and will mean passengers can claim 25 per cent of the single fare for delays between 15 and 29 minutes.

Ms Miller said: "It is important that when things go wrong [passengers] get proper compensation and that it is as easy as possible to make a claim."

Diner to stay

BASINGSTOKE The town's Ed's Easy Diner has changed ownership and has now been transferred to Giraffe Concepts Limited.

Staff at the Basingstoke eatery will be one of 33 sites to be retained however after restaurant tycoon Ranjit Boparan elected to buy the chain.

As part of the sale process, the decision was taken to close 26 diners nationwide, resulting in 379 redundancies across the country.

• An artist's impression of how St John's Square will look

Festival Place revamp revealed

FESTIVAL Place have released detailed designs of how parts of the shopping centre could look after proposed changes are made.

Centre owners AEW are finalising plans to rejuvenate Festival Place by transforming St John's Square into a bright and spacious outdoor area, including an enhanced public realm.

Works have already started on St John's Square, where Metro Bank will open, complete with double height shop facades, in December, while improvements to the car parks are also part of the plans.

AEW bought Festival Place last December and expressed their hope that the arrival of Next, which replaced BHS on the site in May would encourage a number of other retailers to let space at the centre over the next 12 months.

Head of private equity funds Russell Jewell said: "We are looking at a number of major long-term initiatives to enhance all parts of the centre.

"Securing a landmark letting to Next earlier this year has created real momentum, and we're in talks with several new brands interested in taking space at Festival Place. We will make further announcements in the near future."

Flooding sensors

HAMPSHIRE The county council is using new technology to help prevent flooding across Hampshire this winter

Engineers are trying new sensors in roadside gullies that automatically provide data on key factors that affect flooding on the roads such as silt and water levels

As well as the new sensors a new fleet of gully emptiers have also hit Hampshire s highways to ensure drains and gullies are ready for the winter weather

Decision due on social care fees

By Christian Wilson

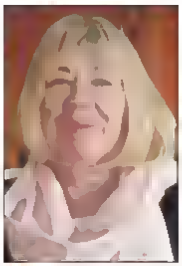
A FINAL decision is due to be made by the county council tomorrow on whether to start charging some people for adult social care

The authority is proposing to bill people for each of the carers that visit their homes while also charging residents in residential and nursing homes for periods of absence

Around 44 per cent of Hampshire residents who receive care at home support don t currently pay anything towards the cost while residents in council-run homes do not pay a contribution when they're away

But this is set to change, with Hampshire County Council recommending plans to start assessing how much residents can afford to contribute to the costs, including taking into account any income received by letting out their own homes

The idea was put to the public in a 10 week consultation that ended on August 28, with the 3 000 responses received influencing the authority to drop a proposal to consider a person s disposable income during any assessment.



• Cllr Liz Fairhurst

Around 12 000 people across the county are expected to be affected by the introduction of fees with the idea previously being heavily criticised by the leader of Basingstoke's Labour group, Paul Harvey as "disgraceful"

Those deemed unable to contribute anything will continue to receive adult social care for free as part of the plans which the authority says will help save around £1 4million.

Savings totalling £43 1m must be made to the service by 2018 with executive member for adult social care, Liz Fairhurst, blaming £48m reduction in its grant from the Government for the cuts

Cllr Fairhurst will consider the recommendations tomorrow, and promised that, if approved, any charges would be "appropriate and fair"

She said. "The county council s funding from central Government has roughly halved in recent years

"And with ongoing reductions in this funding we are having to make some difficult decisions about the services we provide, and the way care is funded in future.

"When considering the recommendations I will wish to review the consultation responses from the public, and ensure that any changes to the way in which adult social care is charged for in Hampshire, are appropriate and fair"

• Prince William meets seven-year-old Anna Kaye

William pays a visit to Basingstoke Hospital

PATIENTS at Basingstoke Hospital were given a massive surprise when Prince William stopped by for a visit last week.

His Royal Highness made a number of unscheduled stops during his tour of the hospital, in Aldermaston Road, to meet staff and patients.

One of the individuals lucky enough to meet the Duke of Cambridge was seven-year old Anna Kaye, who was in the unit with a broken arm and a missing front tooth, when she was spotted by the Prince, who stopped for a chat

"He asked me if the tooth fairy would be coming," said Anna.

Mum Stephanie added. "We had no idea he would be here. It was very unexpected, but great that he stopped to speak to Anna."

Prince William's main reason for being in town on Wednesday was to hear about the progress of the Step into Health Programme which gives servicemen and women the opportunity to experience a new career with the NHS

And he met two of the people who have come through the scheme to work at Hampshire Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust (HHFT) in veterans Chris Elston and Ronnie Waugh.

HHFT chief executive Mary Edwards said. "We are so proud that Prince William has chosen to come and visit "

We were advised over a number of months and led through the process of buying our new house. The finances were made easy and flexible. At times what we required was quite complicated, but it was always simplified by them. They were available all of the time, including weekend evenings on one occasion. 10/10 Mr Magee

Very helpful and proactive with the work done. Advise offered in other areas as well and not just the mortgage. Payment of service was not expected upfront but instead after all had been completed and satisfied that it had been actioned. AWE progress 'sufficient'

By Christian Wilson

THE Office for Nuclear Regulation (ONR) has confirmed that the Atomic Weapons Establishment (AWE) has "made sufficient progress" in dealing with its radioactive waste.

An improvement notice was handed to AWE by the government's nuclear safety watchdog in July last year after it failed to treat 1,000 drums of higher active waste (HAW) at its site in Aldermaston.

It was also deemed that the nuclear deterrent manufacturer hadn't demonstrated that its long-term strategy for managing the waste reduced the risk to the health and safety of the public and its employees.

But after answering the notice's requirement to demonstrate new options to manage HAW at the site while "adequately" minimising risk, AWE was last Wednesday declared as having complied with the requirements by ONR.

Chief nuclear inspector Richard Savage said: "We are satisfied that AWE has made sufficient progress to meet the requirements of the improvement notice, which is part of our longer term strategy aimed at securing safety improvements at AWE Aldermaston.

"The Aldermaston site continues to receive enhanced regulatory attention from ONR."

AWE has proposed activities that are focused on near term hazard reduction of the highest hazard waste.

It has also promised to further demonstrate that the storage environment of the HAW remains appropriate while it is kept there.

An investigation was launched by ONR after it ordered AWE to treat the drums by February 2014, although this target date then expired without the requirements being met.

But despite further work needing to be done to implement the options identified, AWE expressed their delight in meeting the improvement notice's requirements.

Site director Haydn Clulow said: "AWE has been working towards this long-term strategy to meet our HAW regulatory requirements since 2011.

"This strategy accelerates waste hazard reduction at the Aldermaston site with a corresponding risk reduction to the public, workers and environment."

He added "This strategy supports AWE's enduring commitment to deliver safe and secure operations, and make continuous improvement in environmental performance."

CCTV released of burglary suspect

* Police released this image

POLICE have released a CCTV image of one of the people they would like to speak to in connection with a failed burglary at a property developer's offices in Baughurst last week.

Three people gained entry to a storage unit at the Bewley Homes site in Brimpton Road between midnight and 3.30am last Tuesday, but left empty-handed.

And Hampshire Constabulary has now released a CCTV image of one of the suspects.

PC Colin Jarkson said: "We would like to speak to the person pictured in connection with the incident – you may recognise their clothing.

"Residents should be vigilant at all times in rural areas and call us if they see anything suspicious."

MEP vows to 'fight tooth and nail' for new £150m hospital

* A proposed £150m critical care hospital in North Waltham could be under further threat, and (right) Hampshire MEP Catherine Bearder

THE construction of a new £150million hospital to the west of Basingstoke could be under further threat.

Work has yet to begin to build the critical care unit just north of junction 7 of the M3 after two NHS clinical commissioning groups (CCG) determined the cost of the project was too high.

Hampshire Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust (HHFT) had applied for £100m of funding from the European Investment Bank (EIB) to help fund the build of the new hospital.

Any agreement could now be at risk though, after EIB president Werner Hoyer insisted that recent levels of lending to the UK "cannot be maintained" following Britain's decision to leave the European Union.

But Hampshire MEP Catherine Bearder has written to Mr Hoyer asking to meet to discuss funding the hospital – insisting she would "fight tooth and nail" to prevent the project being dropped.

Mrs Bearder said: "Decreased lending from the European Investment Bank is yet another symptom of Brexit.

"EIB chief Werner Hoyer has said, following the vote to leave the EU there will be a reduction in lending to British projects.

"The proposal to build a critical treatment centre in the heart of my constituency is absolutely vital, and I will fight tooth and nail to ensure this vital service to provide care to critically ill people is not dropped."

Grant scheme offers help to sporting stars

ATHLETES are being offered a helping hand thanks to a Sports Grant Aid Scheme funded by Basingstoke council.

The funding can be used to help with everything from travelling and coaching expenses to competition entry fees, equipment and clothing requirements.

Those people applying should be of at least county representative standard, be aged between 10 and 24, and live in the borough.

Nominations are also open for the Basingstoke and Deane Sports Awards, which celebrate the achievements of clubs, teams, coaches, officials, volunteers, schools and individuals.

The borough council's cabinet member for communities Cllr Simon Bound said: "We have a wealth of sporting talent in the borough, and it is important to support these athletes in their quest for success in their chosen sports.

"It is equally important to celebrate their achievements along with the achievements and dedication of many volunteers and coaches."

Grant applications and sports award nominations have to be completed by December 3 via www.basingstoke.gov.uk/sportsawards.

New plan for county policing is launched

By Christian Wilson

HAMPSHIRE'S police and crime commissioner (PCC) has launched his new plan setting out the direction policing should take across the county.

More than 3,000 residents responded to PCC Michael Lane's five-week consultation, which ended last month, on how they think crime should be tackled in their community.

Concerns raised by the public included anti-social behaviour, drug and alcohol problems, and road safety, while residents also expressed a desire for visible local policing.

From all the feedback from the survey, Mr Lane drew up four priorities in his police and crime plan, championing community needs, enabling effective and efficient operational policing, reducing offending, and strengthening partnerships.

He said: "Since my election and during campaigning, I have listened to thousands of people from the community as well as the Chief Constable of Hampshire Constabulary and her team.

• Hampshire police and crime commissioner Michael Lane

"One thing is clear – public safety matters to everyone.

"I want to thank everyone who has participated in, and responded to, my consultations.

"My plan represents what you have told me, and professional advice."

Before its launch on Wednesday last week, a draft plan was presented to the police and crime panel on Friday 6th October 7 who will also scrutinise the detailed delivery plans that support the strategy in January.

But while expressing his delight at setting out his first plan since being elected in May, Mr Lane insisted the survey was "not the end", and promised to continue listening to residents, and tuning the plan depending on feedback.

He added: "I believe that making you safer begins with the foundation of community and that will always start locally with you, your family, your neighbours, and your wider community connections.

"Local policing will always be a key part of supporting the community.

"I recognise that the global and national scene is uncertain, that the nature of crime is changing, that criminals are adapting, and that the policing response required to tackle the issues needs to evolve.

"I will ensure that effectiveness is not compromised in pursuit of efficiency."

You can view the plan in full at tinyurl.com/j77qlmk.

Club damaged

SHERFIELD-ON-LODDON: A junior football club has twice been targeted by vandals in recent weeks.

The most recent incident saw damage to a wooden stairway at Loddon Sports Junior Football Club's building on Sherfield-on-Loddon's village green.

One of the support posts for the stairway was removed and thrown on to the roof between October 3 and 9.

Earlier two fence panels and guttering were damaged.

Bramley and Sherfield PCSO Nathaniel Johnson appealed for dog walkers and anyone else seeing anything suspicious to report it on 101, quoting crime reference number 44160362936.

Puzzles

Sudoku

The objective is to fill a 9×9 grid with digits so that each column, each row, and each of the nine 3×3 sub-grids that compose the grid (also called "boxes", "blocks", "regions", or "sub-squares") contains all of the digits from 1 to 9. The puzzle setter provides a partially completed grid, which for a well-posed puzzle has a unique solution.

UK WATER SOFTENERS

Established 21 years

Hard water is something we are all used to in Hampshire, although most of us have got used to putting up with it, many do not realise that you can do something about it. It furs up our heating systems, causing breakdowns, makes it more expensive to heat our homes and damages our appliances.

The other problem with limescale is the constant cleaning of showerheads, shower screens, stainless steel sinks, the whole house can suffer where hard water is concerned. Limescale aggravates skin problems such as eczema and psoriasis.

With a water softener no limescale will get into the house, which means you will have to do less cleaning, stop buying limescale related products, cut washing powder use by up to 75% and have less chance of large bills for potential future problems with your heating system and appliance breakdowns.

If you were to purchase an ordinary softener you would have quite a large machine, which requires you to set clocks and lug around a 25kg bag of salt. The TwinTec S3 is different. It is small, requires no electricity and uses block salt (like two house bricks) instead of heavy 25kg bags.

Harvey Softeners has been manufacturing softeners in this area for more than 35 years.

Kevin Goody (UK Water Softeners) is one of Harveys top TwinTec dealers and was voted number three in the country last year.

Find out 'Why the Whales came'

By James Richings

A ONE WOMAN show will be making its way to The Haymarket in Basingstoke on Saturday October 29

A stage adaptation of Michael Morpurgo's 1985 classic children's story Why the Whales Came tells the story of Gracie and Daniel, who have been prohibited from going near the mysterious and seemingly dangerous Birdman.

But the two get intrigued and come across a number of clues that makes them want to visit the creature.

Then, after being lost at sea in the fog and stranded on his tiny island, they begin to unravel the Birdman's secrets, the villagers' fears and superstitions and learn why the whales came to the island.

Actress Danyah Miller will be the sole performer in the play.

Danyah and her creative team also adapted another Michael Morpurgo story, 'I Believe in Unicorns', which toured all over the world for just short of three years.

"I know that families, large and small, will travel to theatres, art centres and libraries across the country to enjoy this live experience together and I'm excited that it will be part of the wonderful Get Creative Family Arts Festival which has taken place throughout this month," she revealed.

"And our decision to create a second show based on a Morpurgo story was easy.

"He's a master storyteller and his stories are so rich and multi-layered."

"I also realised that there's so much more to the birth of a show than an audience ever imagines.

"If it's done well and with a little theatre luck, the audiences will never see 'behind the scenes', they will only enjoy the whole experience and come away feeling satisfied and inspired."

Two shows will take place in Basingstoke, both lasting for an hour from 11am and 2pm.

Tickets cost £13 and the show is suitable for anyone over the age of seven.

An evening of hits from The Hollies

By James Richings

THE Hollies are no strangers to performing at The Anvil.

The group have visited the Churchill Way theatre six times in the last eight years with the band putting on a five-star show each time they have visited.

And Tony Hicks who has been with The Hollies since 1963 hopes it will be more of the same when they return on Saturday, October 22.

"The Anvil is one of the better gigs in the UK to be honest with you," Tony told the Observer.

"When we perform, our crowd will want the hits when they see us live, and of course we are more than happy to provide them with that.

"We have been very fortunate to have a lot of hits that people will enjoy and we do the show all by ourselves as we don't have a support act.

"We are even considering adding more songs to the show, so we like to make the concert as it good as it can possibly be."

Since the band's formation in 1962 The Hollies have been on quite a journey.

With 22 members, 24 studio albums and numerous hits during that time, the group have had hit singles around the world including the UK, United States and Australia.

And with the current line-up of Tony, Bobby Elliott, Ray Stiles, Ian Parker, Steve Lauri and Peter Howarth currently representing the group, Tony insists there will be a song for everyone this Saturday night.

"'The Air That I Breathe' is a song that the audience seem to go for and without any invitation, they just go for the chorus which is great to hear," he said.

"Funnily enough though, there is one song we never released here in the UK, but 'The Long Cool Woman in a Black Dress' did surprisingly well in the US.

"That is a really rock-and-roll type song and at the end of the show we usually do that one as it gets the people in the crowd moving."

He added, "On occasions we get people asking us why we still do it and I think they need to see us in concert, as that will answer their question."

"It's a couple of magical hours."

The concert starts at 7.45pm, and tickets cost £32.

• Tony Hicks and The Hollies come to The Anvil this weekend

Review: The T8 Twin Engine R-Design

Volvo steps up its game with the XC90

By James Richings

I NEVER quite got to grips with the older 'Boxy' XC90. So, when I first got a glimpse of the new XC90 T8, I was actually jumping for joy. Because Volvo had made good on all its promises of producing something bold and new, and what you see before you now is something that can only be described as a thing of beauty.

THE EXTERIOR: The new XC90 stands out from what everybody else is driving around you. It is very futuristic looking, but it does keep some of the standard Volvo appearance I loved so much about the older model – such as being big and bold.

INSIDE: Inside is a real pleasure to behold. It's well equipped and has some very nice touches around the centre console. To be honest, sitting in there is like sitting in the Royal Suite at the The Goring, where everything you will ever need is just a button push away.

Standard equipment on the new XC90 starts with a 9" centre console touch screen, sensus, LED headlights with active beam, two zone climate control with 'CleanZone' air quality system, power operated tailgate with handsfree opening, keyless entry and start, power drivers seat, heated front seats, seven seats – three second row individual folding seats and two third-row individual folding seats. That's just the start. There are option packs to add in even more luxury such as Xenium, Winter and Family.

SPACE: Inside the cabin is a big plus point for the XC90. It has plenty of room for everyone. Boot space is brilliant and even better with its split folding seats. There is more than enough space for your entire family, and while using all seven seats there is still enough room for a few bags.

ON THE ROAD: The XC90 is comfortable and agile enough to keep up with the demands of a heavy foot – but to be honest you don't drive around in a luxury XC90 with your hair on fire – you glide.

HYBRID MODE: The T8 can be run just on the electric motor alone and by using just this function you will get an average range of about 24 miles. But because I'm a petrol head I used a combination of the two and decided to let the car's computer switch between the 320hp petrol engine which drives the front wheels and the large 87hp single electric motor that drives the rear axle.

POWER & PERFORMANCE: This is a key part of the XC90 T8. Volvo claims a 5.6sec 0-62mph and I would agree because it feels immense. When you think about it, that's Porsche beating territory.
On safety, well let's just say it's a Volvo and it has you covered. No worries there then.

THE VERDICT: Would I buy one? A big fat YES, but I can't afford one.

Price: £70,875 (model as tested including fitted options)

Win over Kings Langley fires Town into top half

By Christian Wilson

BASINGSTOKE Town defied the Tuesday night chill to put in one of their best halves of football against Kings Langley

A Richie Whittingham penalty and a late brace from substitute George Hallahan fired Stoke to a deserved 3-0 victory at the Ark Cancer Charity Stadium.

It all means that Terry Brown's side have now moved up into 10th place in the Evo-Stik Southern Premier after winning four of their last seven matches

Town went into the tie on the back of a disappointing 0-0 draw away at Biggleswade Town on Saturday that they had dominated in terms of chances.

But it was Kings Langley who had the first big opportunity on Tuesday as Lewis Toomey headed a great chance over the bar

Basingstoke sprung into action after the break though, with Sam Deadfield's volley forcing visiting keeper Danny Boness into a fingertip save near the hour mark.

They didn't have to wait long however as defender Robert Atkinson made a trademark charge up the field and into the box, where he was tripped by Kyle Anthony on 65 minutes.

Midfielder Whittingham grabbed the ball, and duly sent Bonness the wrong way with his spot kick to put Stoke ahead.

Romone Rose then saw his close range effort rattle against a post, with his replacement Hallahan then putting the game out of sight

First the young striker latched onto a long ball from Aaron Jarvis, before rounding the keeper and firing home with five minutes to play

And as Kings Langley pushed forward to try and claim something from the game, Hallahan then exposed the spaces at the back to tap home Aaron Redford's cross on the 90 minute mark.

Atkinson was guilty of wasting two great chances to score at Biggleswade on Saturday as he mistimed his header on both occasions to put the ball wide.

'Stoke continued to look the side most likely to score after the break, as Nana Owusu and Rose both fired efforts narrowly wide of the Biggleswade goal.

Rose then thought he'd finally ended his side's wait in the 69th minute only for the striker to look up and see his goal ruled out for offside.

Tokarczyk then had to be on his toes to deny Imih Effiong grabbing an unlikely winner for the hosts towards the end.

But despite continuing to bang on the door themselves, Basingstoke just couldn't manage to find the net as they instead had to settle for a stalemate

'Stoke are next in action on Saturday when they host leaders Slough Town.

Sport Bites

Double delight

HOCKEY—Basingstoke Hockey Club's men's and ladies 1sts both claimed big wins on Saturday

The men's side eventually emerged with a 5-3 win from their trip to Haslemere 1sts, although things were anything but comfortable.

Goals from Grant Rouse, Paul Dowers and Will Jewkes had looked to have given Stoke an unassailable 3-0 lead at half time before Haslemere fired three quick goals after the break.

But Rouse's second of the match and a fifth goal for Ben Shaughnessy after that ensured Basingstoke emerged with the win

The ladies found things much simpler in their match with Oxford though as they swept to a comprehensive 5-1 win with an Annalise Whitehead brace and goals from Claire Bowman Fi Parker and Catriona Bausor securing the victory

Rugby return

RUGBY Basingstoke RFC will look to maintain their solid start to the season on Saturday when they return to action at Millbrook

'Stoke will be eager to get back on the field after coming out on top in an amazing 43-39 win at Old Tiffinians last time out on October 8

This mini-resurgence comes after Stoke claimed just one win all last season as they suffered their third relegation on the bounce

Clear at the top

FOOTBALL Hartley Wintney are now six points ahead of their nearest challenges in the Combined Counties League Premier Division

A hat-trick from star striker Ross Cook inspired the Row to a 5-0 win on Tuesday as they ran riot against Bedfont Sports with Sam Argent grabbing the other two

That win followed another 2-0 victory away at Windsor on Saturday with Argent and Shane Hollomby getting their names on the score sheet.

Heroes parade for golden girl Danson

ODIHAM hockey star Alex Danson was among the Olympic stars honoured by thousands of people on Monday

More than 150 000 supporters braved the rain in Manchester to celebrate Team GB's record-breaking performance at Rio with a parade through the city

In total, Team GB won 67 medals with Danson part of the women's hockey team that claimed gold.

The 31-year-old finished as top scorer with five goals as her side won all eight of their matches to clinch the gold with a dramatic shoot-out win over the Netherlands

And after helping the ladies' side claim their first ever Olympic win, Danson joined around 400 other athletes from GB's Olympic and Paralympic teams on stage

Danson wrote on Twitter "I will never forget today, thank you for believing, cheering and supporting us all"

Bison lauded by boss Sheppard

BASINGSTOKE Bison head coach Doug Sheppard has hailed his players for getting "back to our best" on Sunday

The Herd grabbed their third four point weekend in a row after capping two different kinds of performances with wins over Peterborough Phantoms and Manchester Phoenix in the space of 24 hours

• Doug Sheppard (Picture by grantkingphotography.com)

While being pleased to see his side emerge with a 3-1 victory at home to the Phantoms, it was Sunday's 7-2 bumbling of the Phoenix on the road that satisfied Sheppard the most.

He said "That's another solid four point weekend for the club

"We weren't at our best last night, but found a way to win,

"But tonight I think we were back to our best.

"We had a real solid win on Sunday night, past the first five minutes I thought we were really good.

"Tonight we did a lot of things right we played simple hockey and when we do that we seem to score well."

The Bison boss singled out the line of Rene Jaroim, Vanya Antonov and Dan Davies for praise as his side followed up successive wins over the Sheffield Steeldogs Hull Pirates and Bracknell Bees

He added. "They went very well all weekend, but I have to commend the whole team who played very well."

Victories see Bison keep up league charge

By Christian Wilson

BASINGSTOKE Bison's charge up the English Premier League (EPL) is showing no signs of stopping anytime soon.

The Stampede have now claimed three four point weekends on the bounce to rise to fourth place, after Peterborough Phantoms and Manchester Phoenix became the latest sides to be overpowered.

Doug Sheppard's revitalised side claimed their third 3-1 win in a row on Saturday night, as they finally beat the Phantoms at the third time of asking in front of their own fans at the Basingstoke Arena.

While they might not have been at their best then, they certainly were the following night, as they blew Manchester away on the road to record a massive 7-2 win.

The Herd got off to the worst possible start at the Phoenix's temporary home in Blackpool on Sunday as Jakub Langhammer fired his side in front on the powerplay on 2.51.

Within three minutes Basingstoke had levelled however as import forward Derek Roehl stroked the puck past Stephen Foote in the Manchester goal. Daniel Davies then gave the visitors the lead for the first time on 13.12, with Aaron Connolly and Jan Jarabek claiming the assist.

It was all Bison after that, in a match that saw the Herd dominate the shots tally by 64-24 – with man of the match Vanya Antonov claiming his first goal of the night on 26.00.

The 19-year-old then finished a good move involving Rene Jarolin and Tomas Karpov to make it 4-1 on 37.33.

Any chance of a Phoenix comeback was ended in 10 superb seconds for the Stampede midway through the final period, as Jarolin and Grant Rounding both got their names on the scoresheet.

And there was still time for Davies and Edgars Behrs to trade goals on 54.03 and 56.42 respectively before the final buzzer eventually put Manchester out of their misery.

A key part to Bison's recent resurgence has been Roehl and Jarabek, whose arrivals at the end of September have coincided with six consecutive wins.

American-born Italian Roehl had his best game yet for the club on Saturday as he collected two goals in his side's 3-1 win over Peterborough.

The first came with 1.26 left in the first period, as Antonov and Jarolin combined to set the 28-year-old free with Roehl then expertly jinking his way past two Phantom players to fire past netminder Adam Long.

And a second followed 2.52 after the break, as more good work from Jarolin on the powerplay saw Roehl once again go through and smash a powerful effort into the corner.

Peterborough fought their way back into the game on 26.06 though with Ales Padelek beating Tomas Hradlovsky in the Bison goal. But the Herd finally managed to wrap the game up with 1.16 of the game to play, as Matt Towalski scored from Jarolin's third assist.

Basingstoke are next in action on Saturday evening, when they will host Sheffield Steeldogs.
